Shokria Azimi Mohammad Arif

Personal

Name	Shokria Azimi Mohammad Arif
Address	15th District, Kandahar, Afghanistan, 3801 kandahar
Phone number	99636564
Email	shokria0700@gmail.com
Date of birth	21-03-2003
Place of birth	kandahar Afghanistan
Gender	Female
Nationality	Afghanistan
Marital status	Single
Driving license	N/A

Interests

reading book, traveling, photography, learning, language

Resume objective

Compassionate and highly skilled Midwife with five years of experience supporting women through pregnancy, labour, and postnatal care. Experienced in antenatal assessments, delivery assistance, and patient education. Committed to providing safe, respectful, and individualised care

Work experience

Midwife Mar 2019 - Jun 2022

Mirwais Regional Hospital, Kandahar Afghanistan

- Ensuring the implementation and continuity of antenatal and postnatal care, family planning, obstetrical care (BEmONC 1 and CEmONC 2), neonatal and comprehensive abortion care, management of victims of sexual violence, reproductive tract infections and Fistula care in accordance with MRH Reproductive Core Package of Activities and reinforce the implementation of standardized protocols.
- Where PMTCT is implemented, ensuring implementation of the PMTCT protocol in the ANC/delivery and PNC consultations (pre counselling, test and post counselling
- Collaborating with the medical doctor and /or nurse in the management of Sexual Violence cases
- Assessing the feasibility for referral of pregnant women form the TBAs to the OPD/MCH for medical evaluation and/or complicated deliveries.
- Ensuring hygiene and sterilization criteria (including universal precautions) are met according to MRH specifications.
- Performing cleaning and minor maintenance for biomedical equipment used. Following the user manual and protocols and alert supervisor in case of malfunctioning.

Female Mobilizer (Screener) Jul 2022 - Sep 2025

Gurgan hospital baran ngo, Kandahar Afghanistan

- To provide nutrition, health, hygiene education and IYCF counselling to pregnant and lactating women and care takers of children.
- To accurately and appropriately treat or refer beneficiaries in the nutrition program by adhering to national and international guidelines and organizational procedures.

- To ensure accurate record keeping of all activities, following the provided data collection templates. To ensure safe storage and handling of the stock (food products, medicines, equipment).
- To ensure appropriate History taking and physical examination of children under 5 years and pregnant and lactation women.
- To ensure safe storage and handling of the stock.
- Assist with the screening of children under 5 and PLWs whenever there is a high need.
- Admit beneficiaries to OPD SAM or MAM according to admission criteria and national guidelines.
- Conduct appetite test and support care takers in feeding the children
- Conduct physical examination and history taking of admitted children and pregnant and lactating women and provide appropriate nutritional and medical treatment following National IMAM guidelines.
- Examine admitted children for any signs of co-existing illnesses and provide appropriate nutritional and medical treatment or referral according to IMNCI guidelines.
- Identify caretakers of children under 5 year and pregnant and lactating women who need psychosocial support.
- Identify pregnant and lactating women and care takers that require Infant and Young Child Feeding (IYCF) and other nutrition or health counselling and provide support to them.

Nutrition Counselor Oct 2025 - Present

INTERSOS – NGO, Kandahar Afghanistan

- Identify the level of severity of sickness, orientated cases in Malnutrition patients to appropriate competence for good management (Midwife, Medical assistant, or Physician): triage.
- Work closely with the with any of (Medical Doctor Nutrition, Nutrition Nurse Supervisor or Medical Activity Manager) in the planning and organizing OTP/SFP services at MHT level, in liaison with MAM, PMR and MedCo;
- Register and report all activities including the supplies distributed, the number of beneficiaries, the SAM and MAM cases, the date and location of services, and report those on weekly and monthly bases.
- Refer the children and reproductive age women to the vaccinator for relevant vaccination.
- Register and measure weight, height, Mid Upper Arm Circumference (MUAC) of children under 5 years of age at the MHNT site and pregnant and lactating women.
- Provide treatment for MAM at the MHNT site and refer the SAM cases to the nearby treating canters.
- Conduct follow up visits on Bi-weekly basis to assess condition of SAM children and provide ration based on the IMAM guideline.
- Administer Vitamin A if the child has not received Vitamin A supplementation during the previous NID.
- Promote consumption of iodized salt and healthy diet.

Education and Qualifications

Bachelor of science

Graduated from Zarghona Ana High School, Kandahar, Kandahar Afghanistan

midwifery program

Successfully completed midwifery program, Kandahar Health institute, Kandahar Afghanistan

Internet training course

Successfully completed Internet training course in ACCC center, Kandahar Afghanistan

Advance Level English language course

Azraksh Academy, Kandahar Afghanistan

Computer Applications Certificate

Azraksh Academy, Kandahar Afghanistan

Skills

Technical expertise in measuring

Expert

Labor and Delivery Management Monitoring progress
Skillful

Newborn Care Performing initial neonatal assessme
Experienced

Emergency Response: Administering medication and h
Experienced

Obstetric Procedures: Assisting with vaginal birth
Skillful

Languages

english
Intermediate

pashto
Advanced

dari
Advanced

urdu
Intermediate